A supper shall be provided at the regular monthly meetings of the Club, and a luncheon shall be provided each Saturday evening from November to May inclusive, except on the evenings when the regular Club meetings occur. Monthly suppers.

ARTICLE X.

STRANGERS AND VISITORS.

SECTION I. — Gentlemen not members of the Club, who reside forty miles beyond the limits of the city of Boston, and have no place of business therein, shall be deemed strangers.

Strangers and visitors.

SECT. 2. — The House Committee may extend the privileges of the Club-house to a stranger during his visit to the city, excepting on the first Saturday evening of each month, and any member of said Committee may, at the written request of a member of the Club, issue a written invitation to a stranger, conferring such privileges for not more than one month ; but no such invitation shall be issued to a stranger who has received a similar invitation within three months, unless by a special vote of the House Committee.

The introduction of non-members.

SECT. 3. — Any member may introduce a gentleman non-member into the Club-house for one day only, excepting on the first Saturday evening in each month, but such introduction shall not confer a right of entrance except on that day. The member introducing or requesting an invitation for a visitor or stranger shall register his name and residence and the date of the introduction or request in a book kept in the office of the Club for that purpose, and shall affix his signature thereto.

The Clubhouse open to ladies on certain occasions.

SECT. 4. — The rooms of the Club-house shall not be open to ladies except on occasions when they are invited by the Board of Management, and during the evening receptions at the opening of exhibitions.

SECT. 5. — Guests to the monthly Club Suppers to the number of fifteen may be invited, upon application to the President or Vice-President. This privilege may be suspended by the Board of Management at its discretion.

Invited guests.

ARTICLE XI.

OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A complete list of the Officers and Committees of the Club shall be kept posted up in the Club-house; and such list shall be corrected by the Secretary as changes occur.

List of Committees.

ARTICLE XII.

PROPERTY.

SECTION I. — No picture, statue, or other work of Art, the property of the Club, or any property entrusted to it, shall be taken from the rooms of the Club, except by the authority of the House Committee, or as heretofore provided.

Removal of property from the Club-house.

SECT. 2. — Any destruction of, or injury to, the property of the Club, or of any articles or works of Art which may be in the custody thereof, shall be paid for by the member who shall have caused the same; and the amount to be paid by such member shall be the cost of replacing or repair-

Injury to Club property.

ing the property so destroyed or injured, the same to be certified by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer, but the Board of Management shall have authority to remit the same at their discretion.

ARTICLE XIII.

Complaints concerning the management.

Any complaint or suggestion concerning the management of the Club may be addressed to the House Committee by any member, over his own signature, and a box shall be kept in the Club-house for the reception of notices.

ARTICLE XIV.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments.

Alterations, amendments, and additions may be made to these Rules by the Board of Management, at any meeting called for that purpose.

HOUSE RULES.

THE Club-house will be open every day from 8 o'clock A. M. until 11 o'clock P. M. Club-house Rules.

By special vote each year the Club-house is closed earlier during the summer months.

No fee shall be paid to any servant or employé of the Club.

Members are not permitted to send servants out of the Club-house, but outside service will be provided, for which a reasonable charge will be made.

All charges must be paid to the Superintendent before leaving the Club-house, as no accounts will be kept with members.

No dog shall be allowed in the Club-house.

Pipe-smoking shall not be permitted in any part of the Club-house.

Smoking is prohibited in the Library and in the rooms occupied during the business meetings of the Club. All complaints must be made in writing to the House Committee, and deposited in a box kept for that purpose in the office.
